

Drumset Notation Key

A circle around or over the hi-hat means it is played open. It is otherwise kept closed with the left foot.

If a third tom is present, it may be notated on the line between the snare and high tom, or on the line between the snare and low tom.